Northern Adelaide Local Health Network (NALHN)

About NALHN

The Northern Adelaide Local Health Network (NALHN) provides care for more than 400,000 people living in the northern metropolitan area of Adelaide and boasts newly redeveloped wards and Emergency and Outpatient Departments, with plans for the addition of more brand-new facilities in the near future. NALHN provides a full range of high-quality medical, surgical, maternity, diagnostic, emergency, and support services. NALHN offers a range of primary health care services across the northern metropolitan area of Adelaide, with a focus on providing preventive and health promoting programs in the community, and transition and hospital substitution and avoidance programs targeted at chronic disease and frail aged.

The Northern Adelaide Local Health Network (NALHN) provides a range of acute and sub-acute health services for people of all ages and covers 16 Statistical Local Areas and four Local Government Areas (one of which crosses the Central Adelaide Local Health Network) and includes the following:

- > Lyell McEwin Hospital
- > Modbury Hospital
- > Sub-Acute
- > GP Plus Health Care Centres and Super Clinics
- > Aboriginal Health Care Services
- > Mental Health Services (including two statewide services – Forensics and Older Persons)

Lyell McEwin Hospital (LMH) is a 443-bed specialist referral public teaching hospital which has links to the University of Adelaide, University of South Australia, and Flinders University. LMH provides a full range of high-quality medical, surgical, diagnostic, emergency, and support services.

Modbury Hospital is a 220-bed, acute care teaching hospital that provides inpatient, outpatient, emergency services, Aged Care, Rehabilitation and Palliative Care. GP Plus Health Care Centres and Super Clinics.

With a workforce of almost 6,000 employees, NALHN works to ensure quality and timely delivery of health care, whilst building a highly skilled, engaged, and resilient workforce based on a culture of collaboration, respect, integrity, and accountability. Our core values of respect, integrity and accountability underpin our commitment to provide excellence in care, innovation, creativity, leadership and equity in service provision and health outcomes to the Northern area communities.

At NALHN Everyone Has a Story, Everyone Matters, everyone Contributes, and Everyone Grows. Consistent with our values we are seeking values based Medical Practitioners - Basic Physician Trainee and Service RMO's within the Division of Medicine.

The Division of Medicine is committed to the achievement of best practice in the design and delivery of services to its patients. This involves the pursuit of quality improvement and innovation in every aspect of its operation.

Clinical leadership of care systems is central to the current national and statewide health reforms. NALHN care delivery is configured within clinical divisions that are patient-focused, clinically led groupings of services. Clinical Divisions are responsible for managing service delivery activities across NALHN campuses and units, bringing together empowered experts to directly make relevant decisions.

The Division of Medicine has seen the development and growth of sub-specialty services including Cardiology, Haematology, Rheumatology, Medical Oncology Neurology and Renal. NALHN remains unique in that the General Medicine units at both sites provide a broad range of undifferentiated medicine. NALHN is still small enough that junior medical officers are well supported and closely supervised. Individual preferences and interests can be accommodated and are encouraged.

What you can expect from NALHN

Provide a short overview of the role, what should employees expect?

Residents are given the opportunity to rotate across a number of different sub-specialties and to partake in the night roster within the Division of Medicine. It is expected that the Resident position provides a steppingstone to a physician training position within three years.
